CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

I understand that as a temporary employee of Palmer, I shall be working on assignments at various law firms, corporate legal departments and other companies where I will be privy to confidential and privileged documents and information. I understand that such documents and information are subject to attorney-client work product restrictions upon disclosure to others and are highly confidential in nature.

I agree not to disclose any documents and information that I see or hear while working on an assignment for a client firm to anyone outside of the principals and employees of that firm. I further agree not to discuss this information with employees of the firm unless necessary to my job performance or I am instructed to do so. I agree that I shall not use any information gained while on assignment for my personal benefit or for the benefit of others.

I declare that I do not have any business interest or proprietary interest with any person or in any business that would create a conflict of interest with respect to the work I shall perform for the law firm or client of Palmer where I am to be assigned. I further declare that I shall not accept any future assignment with any law firm or client of Palmer, if my work for the firm or client would create a conflict of interest because of any business interest I shall then have, or any proprietary interest I shall then have with any person or in any business.

TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENT QUESTIONNAIRE

Date: _____

In order to avoid duplication, we request a list of the DC Metro area law firms and companies (not the employment agencies that you contracted through) where you have temped during the past 2 years.

	Company Name	Date
1.	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____
3.	_____	_____
4.	_____	_____
5.	_____	_____

TEMPORARY POLICY SHEET

Welcome to Palmer. We are glad you have chosen to register with us! The right attitude is critical to having a successful assignment and will carry over into a successful career. Please read through our policies and sign at the end, any questions please ask your recruiter.

Time Sheets - All temporaries are employees of Palmer. Please confirm that you have filled out the proper Federal, State or District tax forms. You MUST use a PLS time sheet for every assignment. Please fill it out completely and properly. If you do not clearly check whether or not you want your check mailed home or to the office, it will automatically be mailed to your home address that we have on file. Fax your time sheet no later than Monday Noon for work completed the previous week to (703) 904-1891. When totaling your hours for the day, round to the nearest quarter hour (.25, .5 or .75). We do not pay for lunch.

Pay Checks – Paychecks are processed and mailed out on Mondays, provided the above requirements are met. (Please allow two to three days for delivery by the U.S. Postal Service.) If you checked the box on the timesheet to have your paycheck to be mailed to our office, it will be available on Wednesdays at noon. During the weeks in which holiday falls, expect at least a one-day delay in receiving your paycheck. If your time sheet is faxed in late or missing information, your check will be processed within 24 hours from the time we receive a completed time sheet.

Punctuality - It is very important to arrive on time to your assignment. Plan to arrive 10-15 minutes early on the first day of a new assignment. If the weather forecast calls for rain or snow, please allow for delays and leave your home early.

Sickness or Late Arrival - It is critical to notify Palmer the moment there is any type of problem that will delay or prevent you from going to your assignment immediately. You may contact Palmer at anytime of the day or night. WE ARE ACCESSIBLE TO YOU AND THE CLIENT 24-HOURS. Normal business hours are as follows: Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM-5:30 PM with the exception of some holidays. When calling after business hours, please leave a detailed voice-mail message including a telephone number where you can be reached. If Palmer personnel are not available, leave a message with complete details (running 15 minutes late, out all day but in tomorrow, etc.) and then call the assignment directly. ALWAYS CALL PLS FIRST. There may be instances where Palmer may require appropriate documentation verifying an emergency for unscheduled leave.

No Call/No Show Policy – If for any reason you are unable to show for work, it is important for you to contact Palmer immediately. If you do not show for work and do not call Palmer informing us of your absence, it will be considered abandonment of your job. We will not be able to work with you in the future except for situations where you may be able to provide proof that you were unable to contact Palmer.

Conflicts Policy – If you determine you have worked on a matter related to your current temporary assignment in any prior temporary or permanent position, please alert the person supervising you immediately.

Overtime – Overtime pay begins at time-and-one-half after forty hours in one week. Prior to working any overtime, it must be approved by your supervisor at the law firm or corporation. All overtime hours that have not been authorized by the client will not be paid.

Lunch/Hours of Assignment – When you are contacted for an assignment by Palmer, you will be given specific information including the address of the firm, a contact person and the exact hours and days you will be working. Please remember that you are required to take a one-hour lunch/break each day of the assignment unless you have been granted special authorization by the contact at the firm. Any changes to your scheduled hours must also be pre-authorized by your immediate supervisor or your consultant at Palmer.

Ending Assignment Early – Even though your assignment is expected to last a certain amount of time, the client may choose to end it earlier than expected. There may also be other circumstances where a client will close their offices due to uncontrollable situations, which include but are not limited to inclement weather, bomb threats or special functions. Palmer will not be responsible to pay you for any portion of the original assignment that you do not work. As a temporary employee, you will only be paid for actual hours worked.

Initial _____

Communication - With your assignment is to be conducted through Palmer. Do not communicate with your assignment directly unless cleared with a Palmer personnel if it is regarding requesting time off, scheduling job interviews other than on your lunch break, personal & work related problems, questioning when an assignment will end or why an assignment is ending, chance of permanent hiring, etc.

Status - When contacted by Palmer regarding your availability for assignments, please call us back! If we are not in, please leave a message with appropriate information (On an assignment for another agency until such date, I am available, Please call me, or No I am not available until such date). This is very important and will help to keep you working continually.

Time Off (while on an assignment) – Once you have accepted a temporary assignment from Palmer, we expect you to fulfill your commitment. If you cannot honor the length of the commitment stated to you when the assignment was presented, please do not accept it. If you must take an entire day off, this should be arranged at least one week in advance. Interviews, doctor appointments etc. should be arranged at least 48 hours in advance if you require it to be scheduled at anytime other than on your lunch break.

Personal Calls - You should not make personal calls from your assignment, unless it is an emergency. If any, personal calls should only be made during lunch and breaks. No long distance or collect calls are allowed. No pagers or cellular phones are to be used during working hours at your assignment.

Dress - Appropriate business attire is mandatory at all times unless instructed otherwise by Palmer or your assignment supervisor. Appropriate dress means tie and jacket for men, and dress, skirt or suit for women. Business attire DOES NOT include sneakers, blue jeans, leggings, flip flop shoes, shorts, skorts, capri pants, logo t-shirts or athletic wear. Hats are inappropriate to be worn indoors. Please use good judgment in choosing your attire.

Computer Use - Never insert a personal disk into a client's computer. Do not use the Internet for personal reasons while on an assignment and never rearrange the layout (icons, short-cuts and files) of someone else's computer desktop.

Change of Address - If you have moved, you must contact Palmer with your new address. We will not stop payment on paychecks that have been sent to your old address when you failed to inform us of your new address. If you move and do not update us with new address information, your W-2 form will be sent to the last address we have listed in our office.

Completed Assignments - After you have completed or left an assignment, there must be no further contact with the client or its employees. No further contact includes, but is not limited to phone calls, e-mail messages, mail, fax or visitation. We ask that you do not return to the firm after an assignment has ended. Should you have any questions or follow-up issues with the firm, your consultant at Palmer will contact the client.

Miscellaneous - Under no circumstances should a temporary on assignment ask anyone at the firm for money. Do not decorate desks with personal items, i.e., pictures, radios, mirrors, heaters, etc. Palmer is not responsible for personal items that cannot be retrieved after an assignment ends.

If Palmer is unable to bill a client due to the performance of a temporary or breaking of the above policies, Palmer may elect to pay the temporary minimum wage.

Palmer is committed to providing equal opportunity employment. We do not discriminate in any aspect of employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, family responsibility, disability or any other improper criterion. Palmer will not tolerate unlawful harassment of any kind. Concerns about sexual harassment or equal employment opportunity should be raised with your consultant or anyone in management, at Palmer. Any complaints will be investigated promptly. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent practical and appropriate under the circumstances. Palmer will not retaliate, nor will it tolerate any attempt at retaliation, against person who raised employment discrimination or harassment concerns in good faith. Any Palmer employee found to have violated the company's policy would be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

I have read and understand the information listed above _____ Date: _____

Form W-4 (2011)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2011 expires February 16, 2012. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2011. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Who must file a Form D-4?

Every new employee who resides in DC and is required to have DC taxes withheld, must fill out Form D-4 and file it with his/her employer.

If you are not liable for DC taxes because you are a nonresident you must file Form D-4A. Certificate of Nonresidence in the District of Columbia, with your employer.

When should you file?

File Form D-4 whenever you start new employment. Once filed with your employer, it will remain in effect until you file an amended certificate. You may file a new withholding allowance certificate any time the number of withholding allowances you are entitled to increases. You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of withholding allowances you claimed decreases.

How many withholding allowances should you claim?

Use the worksheet on the front of this form to figure the number of withholding allowances you should claim. If you want less money withheld from your paycheck, you may claim additional allowances by completing Section B of the worksheet, Lines j through o. However, if you claim too many allowances, you may owe additional taxes at the end of the year.

Should I have an additional amount deducted from my paycheck?

In some instances, even if you claim zero withholding allowances, you may not have enough tax withheld. You may, upon agreement with your employer, have more tax withheld by entering on Line 3, a dollar amount of your choosing.

What to file

After completing Form D-4, detach the top portion and file it with your employer. Keep the bottom portion for your records.

EMPLOYER: Keep exemption certificates with your records. If you believe the employee has claimed too many exemptions, notify the Department of Taxation, P.O. Box 1115, Richmond, Virginia 23218-1115, telephone (804) 367-8037.

FORM VA-4 INSTRUCTIONS

Use this form to notify your employer whether you are subject to Virginia income tax withholding and how many exemptions you are allowed to claim. You must file this form with your employer when your employment begins. If you do not file this form, your employer must withhold Virginia income tax as if you had no exemptions.

PERSONAL EXEMPTION WORKSHEET

You may not claim more personal exemptions on form VA-4 than you are allowed to claim on your income tax return unless you have received written permission to do so from the Department of Taxation.

Line 1. You may claim an exemption for yourself.

Line 2. You may claim an exemption for your spouse if he or she is not already claimed on his or her own certificate.

Line 3. Enter the number of dependents you are allowed to claim on your income tax return.

NOTE: A spouse is not a dependent.

Line 5. If you will be age 65 or over by January 1, you may claim one exemption on Line 5(a). If you claim an exemption for your spouse on Line 2, and your spouse will also be age 65 or over by January 1, you may claim an additional exemption on Line 5(b).

Line 6. If you are legally blind, you may claim an exemption on Line 6(a). If you claimed an exemption for your spouse on Line 2, and your spouse is legally blind, you may claim an exemption on Line 6(b).

FORM VA-4

Be sure to enter your social security number, name and address in the spaces provided.

Line 1. If you are subject to withholding, enter the number of exemptions from:

- (a) Subtotal of Personal Exemptions - line 4 of the Personal Exemption Worksheet
- (b) Subtotal of Exemptions for Age and Blindness - line 7 of the Personal Exemption Worksheet
- (c) Total Exemptions - line 8 of the Personal Exemption Worksheet

Line 2. If you wish to have additional tax withheld, and your employer has agreed to do so, enter the amount of additional tax on this line.

Line 3. If you are not subject to Virginia withholding, check the box on this line. You are not subject to withholding if you meet any one of the conditions listed below. Form VA-4 must be filed with your employer for each calendar year for which you claim exemption from Virginia withholding.

- (a) You had no liability for Virginia income tax last year and you do not expect to have any liability for this year.
- (b) You expect your Virginia adjusted gross income to be less than the amount shown below for your filing status:

	Taxable Years 2005, 2006 and 2007	Taxable Years 2008 and 2009	Taxable Years 2010 and 2011	Taxable Years 2012 and Beyond
Single	$7,000	$11,250	$11,650	$11,950
Married	$14,000	$22,500	$23,300	$23,900
Married, filing a separate return	$7,000	$11,250	$11,650	$11,950

- (c) You live in Kentucky or the District of Columbia and commute on a daily basis to your place of employment in Virginia.
- (d) You are a domiciliary or legal resident of Maryland, Pennsylvania or West Virginia whose only Virginia source income is from salaries and wages and such salaries and wages are subject to income taxation by your state of domicile.

Purpose. Complete Form MW507 so that your employer can withhold the correct Maryland income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form MW507 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Basic Instructions. Enter on line 1 below, the number of personal exemptions that you will be claiming on your tax return; however, if you wish to claim more exemptions, or if your adjusted gross income will be more than $100,000 if you are filing single or married filing separately ($150,000, if you are filing jointly or as head of household), you must complete the Personal Exemption Worksheet on page 2. Complete the Personal Exemption Worksheet on page 2 to further adjust your Maryland withholding based upon itemized deductions, and certain other expenses that exceed your standard deduction and are not being claimed at another job or by your spouse. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) exemptions.

Additional withholding per pay period under agreement with employer. If you are not having enough tax withheld, you may ask your employer to withhold more by entering an additional amount on line 2.

Exemption from withholding. You may be entitled to claim an exemption from the withholding of Maryland income tax if:

- a. last year you did not owe any Maryland Income tax and had a right to a full refund of any tax withheld; AND
- b. this year you do not expect to owe any Maryland income tax and expect to have a right to a full refund of all income tax withheld.

If you are eligible to claim this exemption, complete Line 3 and your employer will not withhold Maryland income tax from your wages.

Students and Seasonal Employees whose annual income is below the minimum filing requirements should claim exemption from withholding. This provides more income throughout the year and avoids the necessity of filing a Maryland income tax return.

Certification of nonresidence in the State of Maryland. Complete Line 4. This line is to be completed by residents of the District of Columbia, Pennsylvania, Virginia or West Virginia who are employed in Maryland and who do not maintain a place of abode in Maryland for 183 days or more.

Line 4 is NOT to be used by residents of other states who are working in Maryland, because such persons are liable for Maryland income tax and withholding from their wages is required.

If you are domiciled in the District of Columbia, Pennsylvania or Virginia and maintain a place of abode in Maryland for 183 days or more, you become a statutory resident of Maryland and you are required to file a resident return with Maryland reporting your total income. You must apply to your domicile state for any tax credit to which you may be entitled under the reciprocal provisions of the law. If you are domiciled in West Virginia, you are not required to pay Maryland income tax on wage or salary income, regardless of the length of time you may have spent in Maryland.

Under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from Maryland income tax on your wages if (i) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in Maryland in compliance with military orders; (ii) you are present in Maryland solely to be with your spouse; and (iii) you maintain your domicile in another state. If you claim exemption under the SCRA enter your state of domicile (legal residence) on Line 5; enter "EXEMPT" in the box to the right on Line 5; and attach a copy of your spousal military identification card to Form MW507. Beginning 2011, you must also complete and attach Form MW507M.

Duties and responsibilities of employer. Retain this certificate with your records. You are required to submit a copy of this certificate and accompanying attachments to the Compliance Division, Compliance Programs Section, 301 West Preston Street, Baltimore, MD 21201, when received if:

- 1. you have any reason to believe this certificate is incorrect;
- 2. the employee claims more than 10 exemptions;
- 3. the employee claims an exemption from withholding because he/she had no tax liability for the preceding tax year, expects to incur no tax liability this year and the wages are expected to exceed $200 a week;
- 4. the employee claims an exemption from withholding on the basis of nonresidence; or
- 5. the employee claims an exemption from withholding under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act.

Upon receipt of any exemption certificate (Form MW 507), the Compliance Division will make a determination and notify you if a change is required.

Once a certificate is revoked by the Comptroller, the employer must send any new certificate from the employee to the Comptroller for approval before implementing the new certificate.

If an employee claims exemption under 3 or 5 above, a new exemption certificate must be filed by February 15th of the following year.

Duties and responsibilities of employee. If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions that the employee is entitled to claim is less than the number of exemptions claimed on the withholding exemption certificate in effect, the employee shall file a new withholding exemption certificate with the employer within 10 days after the change occurs.
